

A reflection into the club and its players from a different perspective through snippets of yesteryear

Round 10 2018 Edition

North Adelaide Football Club Annual Report - 1920

"The officers of the Club, in recognition of the team having been successful in attaining the premiership, presented handsome gold medals, suitably inscribed, to each player who participated in the premiership matches. The members of the Committee and Head Trainer also shared in the munificence of the donors. The thanks of the Committee are due to Alderman L. Cohen and C.L. Jessop Esq., who were responsible for the raising of the funds for the purchase of the medals. In recognition of services rendered, your Hon. Surgeon, Dr. Pellew, was presented with a splendid barometer, while your Chairman of Committee received a handsome pair of serviette rings. "Bos" Daly and S. Canney also received gold sleeve links for valuable assistance during the season."

North Adelaide Football Club Annual Report - 2002

For his win in the 2002 Best and Fairest Heath Younie received a Gold Medal, a plaque, a $3,000 cheque, as well as a Gold Ice Bucket. Gerald Cornelius, Reserves Best and Fairest winner, received a plaque and a $75 cheque. Daniel Hargraves won a plaque and $100 for polling the most Magarey Medal votes.

"Football World" - Tuesday 22 April 1969

"North's diminutive rover Barry Bamford was a busy player at Elizabeth on Saturday. Highlights of his game were 2 goals, a fine roving exhibition and four fiery scuffles with four different Centrals players all over six feet. In his bare feet Barry stands at 5 ft. 6 in."

"Adelaide Observer" – Saturday 15 June 1889

"The younger team (Medindie) are training assiduously, and sixteen men turn out every night. I must confess that I am pleased to see the plucky way in which this team go to work, and they set a good example to some of the other teams. They enter into every match thoroughly trained and determined to do their best. They have not won a match, simply because they have been overpowered, and not through any fault of their own. Today they have the assistance of Groves, who having been left out of Ports, has gone to the Medindies. I don't expect the red-and-white to win, but, if they don't furnish a surprise, it will not be for want of trying."

"The Advertiser" – Saturday 5 May 2007

"North Adelaide pulled off one of the great fighting wins and probably the greatest technical blunder in the contemporary SANFL to roll a tough but poor-kicking Norwood... last night. The Roosters almost robbed their own hopes when two interchange players were ruled out of the contest at the first bounce because they had been named on the field on the official team sheet... Tim Martin and ruckman Brett O'Hara could take no part in the match after North's hierarchy started them on the bench after naming them in the starting 18. Those mishaps were the only black marks on one of the highest-standard, most tense and thrilling games of SANFL football. Both teams threw in their bodies without concern in an exciting contest that was not decided until time-on in the last quarter when North rattled on 3.2 to close out a match it won by sheer attrition;" "The first term produced 13 goals but the shootout was galvanised with chilling body contact and spectacular overhead skills."

"South Australian Register" – Saturday 7 June 1890

North's Rising Stars Shine Bright

"Several peculiar things distinguished the match between Norwood and Medindie, which took place on the Adelaide Oval on Saturday. The first was the difficulty both clubs had in securing a full complement of men. The next thing that struck the onlookers was the strange decisions of Mr. McIntyre, who seemed to be making no attempt at all to umpire successfully, and the result was that the players took advantage of him... Then, again, in the last quarter, when the game was won and lost, two Norwoods and two Medindies, without any excuse whatever, left the ground. It is making rather a farce of the game if players can leave the ground whenever they choose, and it is to be hoped that the captains will prevent any such conduct in the future."

"Sunday Mail" – Sunday 3 June 2007

"While Port closed the gap marginally during the second term, gun forward Clint Alleway almost singlehandedly ensured the Magpies wouldn't edge back into the contest as he hauled in seven marks and kicked two goals for the quarter. Leading up through the corridor, the former Box Hill player was unstoppable as he took another seven grabs in the third term on his way to a staggering total of 18 for the match in a best-on-ground display. Alleway (6.5) could have had an even bigger influence on the contest had he kicked straighter while teammate Heath Younie booted seven consecutive behinds until he registered his first major 22 minutes into the final term."

North Adelaide Football Club Annual Report - 1973

"It would be very harsh indeed, if I could not find space to acknowledge Maurie Francour's enthusiasm and effort in his attempts to lift the side when it appeared everything was lost... it is apparent that he wears the red and white jumper with justifiable pride, and that there is no place for losers in his thoughts" – J.C. Condon, Manager, in the Second Eighteens Report.

"The S.A. Footballer" – Saturday 8 May 1920

In Bernie Leahy, who once led the northerners with signal success, the club has a coach who knows the game from A to Z. Furthermore, the famous old forward, Bos Daly, will instruct the shooting division in the art he knows so well."

From The Farmer Files (Grand Final, 1 October 1949)

Sheer brute strength and an unshakeable will to win gave North the 1949 league football premiership at Adelaide Oval today.

For three quarters North battled through to goals the hard way, without showing one glimpse of system. Then, in the last term, when Torrens started to throw out a challenge, they killed it with smooth, sure teamwork which left Torrens flat-footed.

Comments :

First premiership since 1931; "North Adelaide won today's Grand Final by their determination not to be beaten, their superior condition, and by the aid of a wind which fell and was lost to Torrens' advantage in the last quarter;" "Pash played a grand game for North at half-forward, and a match-winning one when moved to centre. Every kick he had went to advantage" - both from The Mail; First win against Torrens since 1945 after 11 losses (club record).

Good work by North coach

By Colin Hay

Ken Farmer can be well satisfied with his solid training program that built up North's stamina and played such a big part in their meritorious premiership win.

Cox turned in a brilliant roving and forward display and was best man on the ground. His was a fearless exhibition.

Veteran Jeff Pash has gone out of the game with a grand performance, while Colin Aamodt, Ian McKay, and Frank Crouch were well up in a team that withstood a vigorous, gruelling match.

"RED LETTER DAY"

There was so much shouting and cheering in the North room after the grand final that coach Ken Farmer could not get a hearing for several minutes.

Supporters milled round the door straight after the final bell. Two men got up onto a ledge to look through the window into the room.

Ron Phillips, Magarey Medalist for 1948 and 1949, was first player into the room. He was immediately grabbed, vigorously shaken by the hand and thumped on the back.

Darcy Cox was next, and he and the rest of the Red-and-whites were overwhelmed with congratulations.

When captain Ian McKay appeared he was one of the last in—he was given special attention.

There was pandemonium when Ken Farmer stepped on to a table. With many supporters calling for order, three cheers were given him. When he helped Ian McKay up beside him three cheers were again given.

Farmer said: "This is a red-letter day in the history of the North Club. I told the boys what a thrill it would be to win this premiership. Wasn't it?" he asked Pandemonium broke out again.

Farmer continued: "There's something in this game you'll live for for the rest of your days. You have played like a team of champions and with all the courage in the world. I would like to pay a tribute to all in the club.

"Your game will go down in the annals of the game because of the way you finished against the wind with only a few points lead at three-quarter time."
